

2023 Call for Applications

The Académie des sciences - Institut de France and the National Science and Technology Council (NSTC) of Taiwan award a France-Taiwan Scientific Prize every year to a team of researchers (one from a Taiwanese institution and one from a French institution) for their contribution and achievements to scientific research of interest to both regions, as well as their future plans to continue and amplify their scientific collaboration.

The amount of the Prize is 38,200€ to be shared in equal parts between the laureates of the year. In order to encourage the continuous scientific exchange, a dedicated mobility grant is also available each year exclusively to the laureates for short visits and workshops in both regions.

The 2023 call will be opened to all research fields

Terms and conditions:

1. The call is open to all researchers working in France and Taiwan (regardless of nationality) that have an active scientific collaboration and plan to amplify it in the near future.
